

We are very concerned about the concentration of broadcast and newspaper power in fewer and larger conglomerates. This has reduced the diversity of viewpoints on important public questions, which erodes one of the foundations of our democracy. We hope the FCC will reject any further steps in this direction.